The Hongkong Celegraph

The following paragraph was published

HONGKONG, TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 12, 1882.

by the China Mail, in the beginning of last "We lare glad to learn that there is a probability of some influential and united action being taken in regard to the unblushing misrepresentations of Hongkong affairs made in the Pall Mall Gazette para graph which we published and to which we made a short reference the other day. Were it for nothing else but to place the conduct of H.E. the Administrator fairly before the world—his reputation is high enough at the Colonial Office to prevent any evil consequences—and to expose the fallacy of the Gazette regarding Sir John HENNESSY and the Chinese, it is well, perhaps, that some public action should be taken to elucidate the contorted and malignant misstatements which have found their way into the columns of our London contemporary."

We have patiently waited for some confirmation of the extraordinary statement contained in the above extract. For an entire week we have been making a most searching inquiry as to the grounds on which our contemporary's assertion could be based, and we have not succeeded. As not a single line has appeared in the Daily Press with regard to the influential and united action-public action, be it remembered-which is being taken in consequence of an erroneous and irresponsible paragraph, concerning certain Hongkong-affairs, published in the Pall Mall Gazette, we presume that the morning print's inquiries have resulted as fruitlessly as our own. It is therefore quite evident either that the China Mail's inventive faculties have once more been at work, or two or three local busy, bodies have been again aiming to emulate the notoriety of the "Three Tailors of Tooley Street,"

Our evening contemporary is quite a hopeless case; so far gone past redemption in fact, that we have no intention of wasting any more time in a fruitless attempt to teach it truth, honesty, and decency But if there really are any would-be local emulators of the Tooley Street celebrities at work for the purpose of gaining notoriety for themselves, and dragging the Colony. through the mud-and mire until it becomes a scoff and byeword throughout the world, we earnestly ask them to desist in good time. No doubt the easy going citizens of Hongkong are patient and long-suffering, willing in far too many instances to be led by by professors of political chicanery; but said during the past ten days about this John Pore Hennessy should be hounded now notorious Pall Mall Gazette paragraph throughout the world with the terrible far more than the occassion warranted | charges made against him, both as a -and, if the China Mail may be believed, governor, and as la gentleman, by the public action will shortly be taken with opponents of his policy and the reimagine, in the annals of colonial history. Hongkong, it is surely not too much to HENNESSY, advocating a continuance of the | dark; but who lack the courage to make special policy towards the Chinese subjects of the Crown which was a conspicuous feature of that officer's Government in Hongkong, and prophesying disastrous results to the prosperity of the Colony if the Administrator failed to follow in the Governor's footsteps. It also refers to certain remarks made by the Hon. No Choy, in which disastrous results were predicted if a retrograde policy were adopted; hints that reasons existed for believing that the officers administering the govern ment had already departed from the lines laid down by Governor Hennessy, and attributes as a consequence of this, a steady outflow from the Colony of Chinese with their money, which necessitated a public meeting being held in the City Hall to discuss the reasons which led to the will never again be believed, even when withdrawal of native capital, &c. By he speaks the truth. imputing censure-although only indirectly-to His Excellency the Administrator, on the grounds that he had contributed in any way to create financial difficulties amongst the Chinese-difficulties which everybody out here knew well were entirely caused by insane speculations in house properties-the Pall Mall Gazette merely exhibits the same lamentable ignorance of the true state of affairs in the Far East, that is such a distinguishing charac- | their entrenchments whence they keep up a conteristic in all home papers which pretend | tinuous cannonade. to deal with Chinese questions. As a matter of fact the Chinese financial troubles referred to, had reached a culminating point long before Mr. Marsh arrived to take up the reins of Government, and this fact must, of course, be as well known in Downing Street, as it is in Hongkong. This is the whole of the offensive paragraph. What is there in it after all? Certainly nothing particularly objectionable, and nothing-save the mistaken implications in regard to the Chinese troublesvery wide of the truth. There are no "contorted and malignant statements" that we can trace; no fallacles about Sir Joux Pope Hennessy and the Chinese to expose. and the "unblushing misrepresentations" -whatever the phrase may mean-are apparent only to our evening contem-

The special aim of certain local politicians-if the China Mail is worthy of credence-in agitating over this miserable matter is not difficult to fathom. It is desired to spread the bellef that, the paragraph in the Pall Mall Gazette is a dastardly attack on Mr. Marsu, and that it is the handiwork of Sir John Pope Hennessy. These agitators evidently believe in the French proverb-On prend le peuple par tes orcilles, comme on fail un pot par les anses, and by agitating in that belief we think they are losing time which might be much better employed. We trust the future political career of the Administrator may never be darkened by a worse attack than that contained in the unfounded reference of the Pall Mall paragraphist, and we have no doubt His Excellency... in seconding the wish, will consider that if it should fortunately be realised he will have much to be thankful for. We admit the possibility of the information utilised by the Pall Mall Gazette having been supplied by some person who may consider himself an authority on Hongkong affairs; but the insane suggestion that Governor HENNESSY could have made himself responsible for such an exceedingly foolish statement as that referring to the exodus from the Colony of the Chinese with their capital, could only have emanated from a hostile and bitterly prejudiced quarter. However. if any section of the community consider-it their duty to take public action against the Pall Mall Gazette they are quite at liberty to do so on their own private responsibility; but the loyal citizens of Hongkong decidedly. object to being made the tools of scheming (Signed) political partisans, whose designs are as thoroughly understood as they are uni-

The person who would descend to promulgate a series of false and scandalous charges against an absent officer of the government, shielded by the cloak of anonymity, is, as Tobin puts it, "a wretch whom it were gross flattery to call a coward." So far as China Mail influence can affect Governor HENNESSY, His Excellency's friends, and the public need be under no alarm. This puerile organ of the disaffected has reached the lowest stage in journalism. The worldly wisdom of Phædrus clearly describes our excellent contemporary's present stalus:

An enquiry into the circumstances attendant on the loss of the steamship Hougkong was held at the Harbour Office this morning at 11 o'clock. The following gentlemen formed the court. Captain Thomsett, R.N., president. Commander Geo. W. Balliston, R.N., Captain Joy, steamship Canopus, Captain Tutton, steamship Moray and Captain Clasper of the steamer Paro.

Mr. Wotton, of Messrs. Brereton, Wotton and Deacon watched the case on behalf of Captain Fryer, Messrs. E. D. Sassoon & Co. and Messrs. D. Sassoon, Sons & Co., the owners of the cargo, which was of considerable value. Captain Fryer was examined at great length and stated that he had made seven trips from Hongkong to Shanghai, and two from Hongkong to Saigon. The charts in use on board the Hongkong were of the most recent description and purchased specially for use on the China Coast. He had not taken the Haitan Straits passage previously, and only took that route on the occasion of the loss of his steamer, as he had a very experienced pilot on board, and only then on account of the very heavy weather which was prevailing outside. The vessel was going at the rate of nine knots when she struck. The attempted weveral times. rest of the evidence was of a purely technical character, and of too lengthy a description for us finding of the Court was as follows :-

We find that the British steamship Hongkong, official number 85.077, John B. Fryer, master, whose certificate of competency is numbered 95,926, was totally lost on a rock lying in the fairway a little north from between Long Yit and Double Yit, at the southern entrance of the plause).

We find that the chart by which the Hongkong was navigated (admiralty 1985, corrected to January 1879) had not this rock marked on it. We find there was an experienced Chinese pilot on board, but the Court has not been able to take his evidence, as he left the vessel soon after she was lost and has not been seen since.

We find that the rock on which the Hongkong was lost, was surveyed by Lieutenant Commander A. Carpenter, of H.M.S. Magfie in March last, and that a description of it was published in the Hongkong Government Gazette on the 1st April following.

We are of opinion that no blame is to be attached to the master of the Hongkong for the loss of that ship, The Court are of opinion that vendors of Charts should be careful in keeping their charts corrected before selling them. Given under our hands at Hongkong, this twelfth day of September 1882.

Cricketers had also to regret the loss of their late President, who died in March last, a loss which, he selt assured, everyone would deeply deplore. He had been a great friend to us all, and all Hongkongites remembered Mr. Hugh Bold Glbb with the greatest affection. He was a great friend to every kind of sport, and whenever a subscription in aid of sport was needed, Mr. Gibb's name was sure to be at the head of the list.—(Applause). He thought that our old friend Mr. Hynes might be induced to continue in office for a short time longer, and would propose that Mr. St. Croix he appointed to act as Treasurer from date.-

After the adoption of the report and accounts Mr. St. Croix expressed his disinclination to act as Treasurer, or have anything to do with money; at the same time he was willing to assist the Club to the best of his power. He should be glad if Mr. Hynes continued to act as Secretary, and suggested that his past services should receive some recognition. Mr. Hynes regretted that circumstances over which he had no control, public functionaries, and prelates who threaten compelled him to decline taking office this year. After some discussion Mr. St. Croix was elected imprisonment. The Government, it is said, has Secretary, and Mr. Foss, Treasurer, for the been surprised at the action of the Bishop of ensuing year, Mr. Hynes promising to render these gentlemen all the assistance he possibly.

The Chairman then said:—It is now my pleasing duty to present the usual prizes to the players who have most distinguished themselves during the season, as a token of the club's appreciation of their play. I regret that there are fewer of these prizes to be awarded than was the case last year, and though this is a saving to the club, i am sure you will agree with me that it is a kind of economy which is not desirable. Some gentlenien on leaving Hongkong were good enough to leave behind them a silver mounted bat forthe best average among the members of the club and this Mr. Dumman is entitled to by his fine average of 84.—(Applause.) Mr. Dunman is also entitled to another bat for his score of 152 against the New Comers. I have also the pleasure of presenting a bat to Mr. St. Croix for his innings of 89 against the Buffs, and I hope that with it he will manage to swell many a large total for the club.—(Hear, hear.) Mr. Hynes is also entitled tola bat for a score of 76 he made against the Detached Squadron, and he also gets one for scoring the most runs for the club during the season.-(Applause.) The ball for the best bowler goes to the celebrated "lobster," Mr. D. Walker, the Middlesex captain, who on a celebrated occasion, overthrew the club cham pions. Mr. Hynes is also entitled to a ball for taking the greatest number of wickets during the scason.—(Applause.)

Mr. Stewart called attention to the advisabilit of keeping the ground clear of outsiders during play, and alluded to the danger there was of injuring the small boys who usually crowded the ground. Mr. Hynes replied that the Committee had done everything possible to abate this nuisance. Mr. Hynes also stated that larger nets for practice were in course of construction which would be a great benefit to lawn tennis players and others. He also expressed a hope that members would stick to cricket and not desert the old manly game for lawn tennis.

Mr. Angier hoped that a chance would be given to members who were not selected in the first elevens to play in some second eleven matches. He had been a member all last year, and although desirous of playing had never been asked to do so. Mr. Hynes replied that they had never been able to get up a second eleven, although they had

NEWS BY THE AMERICAN MAIL

We take the following telegrams from the San Francisco Morning Call, received by the Occidental and Oriental Steamship Co.'s steamer Arabic, Captain W. G. Pearne, which arrived in harbour this morning:-

"Duncin, August 6th."

According to telegrams to-night from every part of Ireland, the constabulary are determined to have their grievances remedied, else they will resign. Clifford Lloyd had the Limerick men parade yesterday; and upbraided them for their conduct. He said if they were soldiers, they would be shot. The men replied that they were not soldiers, and denied that they acted disloyally. They refused to withdraw their circular to the force. The Inspector-General had them again parade, and told them that they were acting badly, and that the government was losing confidence in their loyalty and they were playing into the hands of the enemies of the Government, He asked them to withdraw their circular and promised that he would see that their claims were presented to the Government and certain allowances made. The men again refused, and The annual general meeting of the members | threatened to resign within eight days, if they did not, meantime, receive a favorable answer to their memorial. THE ARREARS BILL.

We are enabled by the telegrams in our San Francisco exchanges, received by the Arabic, to give some particulars relating to the final stages. of this extraordinary measure in both Houses of Parliament. A telegram from London dated August 8th says :-

"The Marquis of Salisbury, speaking on the Arrears bill at Hadfield, last night, said that the bill was neither necessary nor very important in its practical operation, but in its present form it contained principles involving so grave a depar-. ture from the ordinary policy of the Government that the Lords might refuse to sanction them without a direct authorization from the people. The Marquis of Salisbury did not say whether the Peers intended to fight the Arrears bill or to abandon the amendments, nor was any statement made on this point by Lord Sandown, who spoke at Rufford Park, nor by Edward Gibson, who addressed a Conservative meeting at Ledbury. Sir Stafford Northcote, apologizing for his absence from a Conservative meeting at Ledbury, said : "I have been unwell some little time, and shall be absent from the House of Commons until the beginning of next week. The time for action seems to be close at hand. We must be prepared for all contingencies."

It was rumoured in the lobby of the House o Commons that a compromise had been arrived at with regard to the amendments to the bill.

The Times prints a letter over a column long. from Earl Dunraven on the subject of the Arrears bill, in which he maintains that there is no justification for attributing to the Lords a desire to precipitate a dissolution or to ignore the Arrears bill. The Lords, he says, by endeavoring to improve the bill, will run the risk of bringing about a much greater injustice, impairing, if not destroy. ing, the usefulness of these acts. A bill cannot he framed giving exact justice to all parties, as i is an exceptional measure, dealing with an exceptional state of things.

The Tinios, in a leading article, says ! Wo shall say nothing at present of the inexpediency, that might almost be called immoral, of introducing an incomplete and ill considered County Franchise bill for the mere sake of raising a party. cive But that would be a minor evil compared with the immediate danger of the loss of the Arrears bill. The Times says it bopes both parties will recognize the necessity of a compromise and will allow no unworthy motive to interfere with the highest interests of the State. In the Commons, on August 8th, Gladstone in moving consideration of the amendments of the Lords to the Arrears of Rent bill, stated he would have to ask the House to substantially dissent from the first amendment of the Upper House, The Government will propose to enact that either landlord or tenant can initiate proceedings, subject to ten days notice from the initiatory party. He also said :- "I shall not ask the House to reject the second amendment, but amend it so as to provide that in cases where the tenant right is sold within seven years, a landlord shall have a lien on the proceeds for the arrears he had been deprived of by the action of the bill to the extent of one year's rent, the landlord only to have this lien of the sum realized by the sale of the tenant right, equal to three years' rent. Gladetone declared the amendment of the Lords, that the Land Commissioners shall take into consideration the value of the tenant right denying the application by the tenant, for the relief provided by the bill to be over-stringent. The Government will substitute words, shall, so far as they consider reasonable. He also declared the Government unable to accept certain minor amendments, particularly that providing for an appeal to the Land Commission, which they will only permit in regard to points of law. The Government wished to introduce every possible improvement on the language of the bill and make concessions so as to avoid conflict, and so that if a conflict arises the Government will not it be responsible for the Government in the interest of England and Ireland as well as Ireland

Northcote followed Gladstone.

Parnell said he regretted the concessions of "Sladstone, which might be mischievous. He ed whether the Government would stand by in, or, as in the case of the Land Act, yield of Lords.

The first amendment of the Lords was rejected-293 to 157. All the other of Gladstone's proposals were also agreed to.

The Daily News says: Of the many rumors current concerning the intentions of the Lords, this one apparently is supported by fact. It is, departure. that a number of influential Peers have intiniated to the Marquis of Salisbury that in the event of his pushing a conflict with the Commons on the Arrears bill to extremes, they will not be able to yote with him.

The Standard of August 9th says:—The moderation of the Government amendments to the Arrears of Rent bill practically relieves the tension of the political situation.

The News says :-- The firmness and sound judgment of Gladstone has apparently saved the country from a serious constitutional crisis. The Times says:—Gladstone's speech ought

The Marquis of Salisbury said the object of his to death. amendment to the bill was to provide against injury to landlords who had solvent tenants. He believed, he said, the bill was a public blunder, and that it would not be a final measure. ### AFFAIRS IN EGIPT

The annexed telegrams are taken from the San Francisco Morning Call :-

LONDON, August 6th The official report of admiral Seymour concerning the encounter with the enemy by the reconnoissance party at Mahalia Junction, Saturday, is as follows: Our force consisted of two hundred men of the Naval Brigade, with one forty-pounder and two nine-pounder guns, under the command of Captain Fisher, one thousand murines under Colonel Tuson, half a battalion of the Thirty-eighth and Forty-sixth Regiments and all the Sixtieth Regiment. We had a skirmish with the enemy, which was two thousand strong, with six guns and six rockets, lasting from half-past five until half-past seven o'clock in the evening. The total casualties to the Naval Brigade and marines were two killed and twentytwo wounded:

The following is General Allison's report; Persistent native reports existing during the past few days, that Arabi Pasha was retiring from Kafr-el-Dwar to Damanhour, I determined upon a reconnoissance to ascertain clearly whether Arabi still held his original position. The left column commenced an advance at 4.45 p.m. from the advance pickets of the Ramleh lines, moving by both banks of the Mahmudych Canal, and soon came into action with the enemy, who was strongly posted in a group of palm trees on the castern side, and the strong defensible houses and gardens on the other side of their positions were carried. At this time Lieutenant Vyse, of the Sixtieth, and one soldier were killed. The enemy then took a second position, half a mile in the rear upon the eastern bank of the canal among the high crops and houses and behind the irregular banks of the canal From this position the enemy was driven with great loss. accompanied the right column myself, As soon as the enemy observed us they opened fire with artillery. I pushed on as rapidly as possible till we reached a point where the railway approached nearest to the Mahmudych Canal and then opened a most terrific fire upon the enemy lining the banks of the canal. The two nine-pounders were dragged on to the embankment and brought into action against the enemy!s guns. The forty-pounder commenced firing over our heads against the point where the enemy's forces were beginning to appear. I now threw forward two companies to the car house near the canal, and followed up by throwing four companies still more to my left, upon the bank of and across the canal, thus attaining the position -i wished and forming a diagonal line across both. the canal and railway. The enemy retired slowly before us and five of their seven-_pounders and nine centimetre guns were speedily got under by our artillery. The object of my reconnoissance-was attained, and I determined to withdraw. This movement was carried out with most perfect regularity and precision, and the troops fell-back by alternate companies with the regularity of a field-day parade. Every -- allempt made by the enemy to advance was crushed by the beautiful precision of the forty pounder and the steady firing of the nine-pounders. The loss of the enemy appears to have been very great, and they were so dispirited that contrary to the usual practice of Asiatics, they made no attempt to follow up our withdrawal Our reconnoissance was a success. I regret to state that our loss was somewhat heavy. Lieutenant Vyse was one of the most promising officers I ever met. Our total loss was four killed and twenty-nine wounded. The loss of the 4th September, 1882. The grass course was opened again this morning. All the posts are up. The course is in as good order as can be expected and everything now appears to be in smooth working order; thing to growl about.

SHANGHAI TURF NOTES.

It has been often suggested that the various clubs of which we have many here, should amalgamate. This morning, a gentleman, doubtless an advocate of the scheme, endeavoured to demonstrate the feasibility of converting the ditch dividing the two race courses into a diving and swimming bath, especially the former, with the exception that ponies are to be substituted for the usual spring board, I did not personally witness the experiment, but I hear that it was very successful Mr. Ten Broeck "opened the ball" this morning with a pow of a lot of kept-over griffins; for once round, time two minutes 591 seconds. Later on mother lot did two minutes 55 seconds. I did not notice anything that took my fancy amongst these ponies.

. The Judge's new purchase, powed for a quarter with Picaroon and Plunderer; to the surprise of every body he walked away from Picaroon in the quick time, considering the state of the course, of 29 seconds, moving in excellence style. However, there was a large difference in-weights. Mr. Risk galloped his late purchases for half seconds, beating the handsome brown and an-The Keechong and Ewo Stables, and Mr. Bill, were training with their usual judgement. The result of their knowledge of their own stables is only revealed to the public on race days .-

a mile, a light weight on the bobbery-spotted grey winning in one minute two and a half

6th September 1882. Being galloping morning the grass course was open and a great deal of advantage was taken of it, considering the early period of the season and the fierce heat. Mr. Ten Broeck powed a number of his steeds; there was the big skewbald, he did 1.35 for 7 m. with a light weight up, and some other of his griffins did the same distance in 1.394; some of Mr. Bill's did it in 1.40. Mr. Bill also took a crowd for a mile canter, the dark bay having the best of it in 2.20; a large cream was second best. Deerhound, the griffin belonging to the "New Scotch Stable" did i mile in 641; a little dun, which seemed to have several owners, but really belonging we think to The Toad, did i m. in 1.11. Mr. Paul's stud were all sent for gallops. Mr. Fungus's Prejudice, Picaroon. Pillager and Prodigal went for a 2 m. canter. Picaroon did not go well, he looks too fat, so perhaps the griffin is not so much of a flyer after all The chestnut bought by Mr. Henry at last night's auction for Tls. 155 did a quarter in capital style in 281 seconds. We heard an old "Man at the Rails "remark that Montezuma had not summered well, that he looks dry, that he cannot be got fit for this meeting and that he will hardly get placed in the St. Leger.-Mercury.
